TO OUR GUESTS.

St. Louis welcomes the visitors who have come to amend the full festivities. Whether they are merchants come to lay in fall and winter stocks of merchandise or whether they are simply sightseers, they are welcome. In either case they will find St. Louis a not half bad place. When sightseers have the immediate downtown district they may find much to criticise in the unmade and uncleaned condition of the city's streets. If they are out after nightfull they may miss that this condition is due to temporary election next April.

Merchants will find that the business by the rottenness which shows in municipal politics. Its business men are as wide-awake and as eager and able to please as ever.

DON'T HINORE ILLINOIS.

It will be well for persons who desire a reasonable basis for the calculation of party cinners in lilinois to keep an attentive eye upon the campaign being made in that Small by Samuel Alsohuler, the Remocratic candidate for Governor.

There is a very notable significance in the enthusiasm with which this able young German-American is being received throughout his State. The enthuslasm is not limited to partisan who voted the Republican ticket four years ago. It extends to many Illinoisans who are wearied to the one by Tannerism and Cullomism. N is especially felt by German-Americans who recognize Mr. Alsohuler as the consistent American sentiment on the issue of imperialism.

WATCH CLOSE COUNTIES.

In the determined effort being made paign in Missouri, under the direction of Mr. Richard C. Kerens, to obtain control attack where the Republicans cherish an earnest hope of final success.

It is now distinctly apparent that Republican campaign work is being concentrated on the Legislature and that the full strength of the organization will jority in that body. But little hope of demember of the Flory-Raumhoff-Ziegen- against tensis." But they also know that, under cover of a hurrain campaign to carry the State for | disputed anywhere. Flory, they can best advance their scheme for obtaining control of the General Assembly.

Mr. Kerens's netivity in this work is natural. It is based upon the contingency of a vacancy in Missouri's represcutation in the United States Senate that shall necessitate the election of a United States Senator by the next Legislature. Mr. Kerens's consuming ambition is to be United States Senator from Missourt. The attainment of this would richly reward him for all the time and money which he has devoted to politics. On the mere chance of a vacancy arising Mr. Kerens is stimulated to strengous exertions for personal profit. The Republican movement to elect a Republican majority in the next Legislature is a Kerens movement to reach the United ! States Senate.

It is for the Democrats of Missouri to keep these facts plainly in mind and to exert unusual energy in making sure of Republican assault is leveled at this point. The keenest Democratic vigilance and the most aggressive counteraction are demanded in return. There should be no chance of Republican gains anywhere in the State. There will be none if Missouri Democrats are alert and faithful to their duty. It is of the utmost importance that the Republican the city's income caunot. scheme to gain control of the next General Assembly of Missouri shall be defeated.

FORCED BY THE TRUSTS.

There is a peculiar significance in the fact that the Philadelphia Times, which earnestly supported Mr. McKinley in 1896, now comes out in advocacy of the election of Mr. Bryan, and that the great majority of members of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, with certain thoughful reached the conclusion that their best Democratic party.
